Mrs. Ricketts advised the proposed 2023/2024 budget was sent to the County Superintendent on 3/16/23, local funds are decreasing by $4M for a tax levy decrease of 5.13. Superintendent, her request for a meeting with a school principal on 2/28/23, the principals denial of the meeting, school placement for her daughter and her daughters anxiety level. Ms. Carla Gay Brown advised her 3rd grade child was physically assaulted by a teacher and the lack of communication from the school. Mayor Mr. Marty Small advised incorrect information is being circulated, confirmed the Atlantic City Board of Education received additional school aid but it would not have an impact on Atlantic City Residents. Mr. Small advised he had a press conference to set the record straight. Monitor Ms. Carol Morris advised rumor of $50M is totally incorrect.

Board Member Comments – Mr. Kashawn McKinley advised the Board had plenty of time to review the proposed budget which was broken down line by line. The budget was easy to understand and the process was taken very seriously. Lastly, Mr. McKinley noted the irresponsible journalism. Mrs. Bailey advised all board members had the opportunity to review the proposed budget, and the lack of feeling uninformed, her due diligence, her trust in administration, non-truthfulness spreading around and the hard work put into the proposed budget. Mr. Mayfield advised he asked questions and was it was the first time he did not have 10-15 questions. Ms. Bridgers advised there were flexible dates to review the proposed budget, binders made and delivered and the great planning that began in February. Mrs. Ricketts advised she was offended by the incorrect information circulating, the deep dive into the numbers, program by program, meetings with the monitor, administration and directors for a very collaborative process. Ms. Morris thanked Mrs. Ricketts on a terrific job.
