

Music Scholarship Award

The Trustees of the Friends of the Ocean City Pops, Inc. are pleased to announce the availability of four $1000.00 music scholarship awards, one to be presented to a graduating senior from Ocean City High School and three additional awards to graduating seniors from Atlantic and Cape May County High Schools. The student should have applied to/or been accepted in a college or university and plans to major in music.

The applicant must submit all of the following:

- The attached application form, completed
- A high school transcript
- One letter of recommendation from a current school music teacher
- A brief, but revealing, statement regarding background in the study of music including private instruction, participation in school/community music organizations, and intentions for continued study or performance in the future.

All information must be post-marked on/or before April 11, 2025.
